Two boys, rag-pickers, named Lewis and Jacob Ulrichs. were seen about the place during the afternoon, and Sergeant Clark and Officer Shelton arrested them, but there being no evidence against them they were dismissed. On Saturday afternoon a little child of Mr.

James Soper went into a shop and was ordered out, and as she was leaving, Miss Mary Stewart threw a stone from the window, striking the girl upon the head. For this she was arrested by Officer Harrison and fined $1.50 by Justice Cull.

On same afternoon, Mrs. Lusby, who resides in Uniontown, while in the store of Mr. Woods on Eleventh street, either lost or was robbed of her pocket-book, containing fifty dollars. THE GUNNING SEASON AT HAND .- In a few days the ordinances of the Corporation and the Levy Court will not interdict the shooting of game in the marshes; and the indications of a | ters is a misdemeanor punishable both by fine and numerous migration of game to the marshes of imprisonment, the Potomac has induced the sportsmen to put their fowling-pieces, which have been out of use since the outbreak of the rebellion, in order. After the 1st of September it is lawful to shoot rail, reed birds and black birds, until the 1st of May. But it is a violation of the law to kill them between the 1st of May and 1st September. For several days persons in the Smithsonian grounds have noticed the passage of numerous flocks of black birds and read birds, flying as if leaving the fields and marshes east of the city for their nightly resting places west. Juvenile sportsmen station themselves on the banks of the river near the Monument, and bang away at the passing flocks as if the law would not reflect them if enforced. Some of them are experts in the use of fire-arms, and succeed in securing for themselves fine messes of those delicious birds.

Calvert, A. Potts, Wm. Marshall, R. Church, Marshall Brown. The work of putting the ground in order, erecting appropriate buildings, &c., is now going on. Cobern, for stealing melons from Mr. Tolson, a market gardener, and they were turned over to their efficers for punishment. They also arrested an Italian, named Carlo Copetini, for smuggling whisky to sol-diers, and he was taken to the Central guardhouse to be dealt with according to law.
